

Communications Recap for Chapter Council, March 5, 2022

Contact Elizabeth Kubey, ekubey@cnps.org for more information.

Flora Magazine:

- It's time to relay any events you'd like considered for spring Flora magazine (late May-August). Please share with this form by end of day Wednesday, March 23. Can use the same form for garden tours, plant sales, and events happening sooner with preferably 3+ week lead time.

Native Plant Week:

- Statewide Campaign and Input
- April 16-23 - California Native Plant Week, April is National Native Plant Month
- <https://www.cnps.org/california-native-plant-week> (page will be updated soon)

- Destinations for accessible plant walks/hikes near populated areas.
- Bloom! Bouquet workshops

Conference:

- Please consider including a Call for Presenters, (deadline is March 31) in your chapter's upcoming communications.
- David Bryant (dbryant@cnps.org) and Alyssa Huante (ahuante@cnps.org) can help provide language and support.
- Can also repost recent social media from state office. For example, here's some IG posts to share to your IG story:
 - Instagram
 - Instagram video

White Sage:

- Is your chapter interested in hosting a speaking engagement, film screening, white sage giveaway or other related events for the Saging the World campaign? Contact David (dbryant@cnps.org)

Public Policy:

- rooftop solar, Molok Luyuk, wildfire, 30x30)
- Please repost any content we share on social media

Publications News:

- Meet Krystle Ramos: Our Publications Program Coordinator!

- As we welcomed in Krystle to CNPS, we also said a bittersweet goodbye to Emily Underwood as our Publications Director at the end of the call. She is pursuing a new job opportunity with Annual Reviews/Knowable magazine along with some independent writing projects. We are so thankful for her tremendous contributions during her time on staff.

- Emily shared her email if you'd like to stay in touch, but wanted to let you know that she will take a bit of time to respond as she'd busy learning the ropes of her new role: Emily Underwood emily.l.underwood@gmail.com.